Helen Ward HBUM pp 114-117 Neber Ward organized 186/ still in Fort were her counselors during the three years that she served. called as president. Clara Clyde, Mima Broadbent and The next reorganization took place in 1917 when Sopl Carlie Clegg Tidwell as secretary and Mima Broadbent, tr dent. Her counselors were Margaret Murdock and Soph In 1910 Johanna E. Jensen was called as stake Relief counselors were Elizabeth H. Murdock, Lavisa Alexander The second Relief Society president was Annie R. fields, sold rags and sold their Sunday eggs. for their Society they stored wheat that had been glea making burial clothing for those who had passed away. I go into the homes of others in caring for the poor, nursing ters. In addition to establishing their own individual home The early pioneering days were difficult for the Relic as her counselors during that period. Cluff Jones, Hannah Harbour, Sarah Cummings and R Daybell, Mary Bronson, Avis N. Bronson, Mary McMu as president. She served for 19 years, with Sarah Ale Then the stake organization was effected Emma Broy

Mima Broadbent was sustained as president in 1920 and